

The AAMI Career Fair is a great opportunity for companies to meet job candidates at AAMI's Annual Conference and Expo. There are three packages available:

Job Fair

$775

As a Job Fair participant, you will receive:

- A tabletop exhibit at the Job Fair, enabling you to meet with Conference attendees, interview qualified candidates, and distribute information about your company.
- Advance notice sent to all conference attendees before the Conference publicizing your job vacancies and your presence at the Job Fair. This notice can include information so that you can schedule specific meetings or interviews with potential candidates.

Job Fair Plus

$875

With this package, you will receive the Job Fair benefits described above, plus:

- Three online job advertisements, which can be posted at any time in 2012. (These are included at $50 each in this package. Usually, job postings are $150 for AAMI members and $300 for non-members.)
- Each posting will be listed for 30 days, providing you with access to thousands of professionals who visit the AAMI Web site.
- By advertising online, you also gain access to over 300 resumes of qualified medical technology professionals.

Sponsorship

$1,275

As a sponsor of the Job Fair, your company will receive the Job Fair benefits described above, 5 online job advertisements, plus:

- Your company logo and sponsorship recognition on all AAMI promotional material about the Job Fair distributed before and during the conference.
- Recognition at the Job Fair that your company sponsored refreshments made available to attendees.
- Visibility and recognition of appreciation in a follow-up letter sent to those who attended the Job Fair.
